Short of capacity?
Transformers or conductors overheating?
Are you paying your power wholesaler a special penalty?

You may be suffering from low power factor!

Learn how to improve your power quality at

Power Factor Correction

A seminar for utility and city staff

June 12, 2007

MCM Elegante' Hotel 2020 Menaul NE Albuquerque, N.M.

Time: 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Cost: $75

(includes materials, breaks and lunch)

Each session will cover:

The role of power factor correction	General power quality overview	What is power factor correction	Financial considerations of PFC
Why PFC is criticalChanges to your system	 Good and bad power defined Industry standards General utility standards Western's power quality 	 Good vs. bad power factor Problems caused by bad PF Effects of PF on a facility Case studies 	Utility bill impactEquipment optionsExpected payback periods
Top 10	standards	Break-out sessionsissues and much, muc	h more

Sponsored by

Don't let poor power factor hurt your utility. Register today for the Power Factor Correction seminar.

Name:
Title:
Company:
Address:
Phone:	Email:

Mail your registration and check to: Ron Ebenkamp

Registration form

Tri-State Generation & Transmission Assoc., Inc.

P.O. Box 33695

Denver, CO 80233-0695

Make checks payable to Tri-State Generation & Transmission Assoc., Inc.

Payment will also be accepted at the workshop.

Call Paula Fronk, Western-CRSP — 801-524-6383, for additional information.

Workshop presented by Power Quality University of Omaha, Neb.

Lodging:

MCM Elegante' Hotel

2020 Menaul NE Albuquerque, N.M. 505-884-2511

Reference Western Area Power Administration for special discount of $79.99.